Proposition 5. Shall Article 16, Sections 1, 3 and 4 be amended to streamline the purchasing process of the City, allowing regulation and restrictions by City Council ordinance and allowing the City to enter certain contracts and make certain purchases in accordance with policies set by ordinance, rather than requiring Mayor signature for all contracts and purchases. Additionally, the amendment would allow more flexibility with building repairs and allow local vendors to match State of Oklahoma central purchasing. Lastly, the amendment would allow the City Manager to sign contracts if within the authority authorized by ordinance of the City Council.
